Celeste Perfumes

I apply my perfume in the morning and get compliments all day long. I'm hooked for life. Celeste is the best.
Dianne Johnston – v Veen - Roodekrans

Going for the cheapest perfume isn't always a good idea. Perfumes vary from fragrances that last all day to scents that are light and short-lasting. The most popular concentrations are:

Parfum

Eau de Parfum

Eau de Toilette

A common misconception is that they're all the same, but knowing the difference will help you make the right choice.

My husband thinks I wear perfume to bed at night for him but it's still from what I sprayed on in the morning. Off course I don't tell him that. I just love Celeste

Portia Sakasa - Soweto

Parfum is the most concentrated and contains 25%- 40% pure perfume oil. It's the most expensive, the most dominant and the fragrance lasts by far the longest. It's the best of the 3 but also the most expensive.

Eau de Parfum is the middle of the range and contains about 15 to 20% perfume oil. While it's cheaper than perfume, the fragrance also doesn't last so long and you'll need a touch-up or 2 as the day wears on.

At the bottom of the range is Eau de Toilette. With a mere 5% oil, the fragrance is short lived.

Everywhere I go people tell me how lovely I smell. They're really surprised when they hear how much I pay for my perfume, thanks to Celeste.

Pat Loureiro - Glen Ashley
